

The pent-up feelings of thousands of Yeovil spectators broke loose when the final whistle blew for a great victory. Those last ten minutes had seemed an age, but now they cheer and cheer the players, like stalwart Les Blizzard in above photograph. Picture on the left shows Eric Bryant, Yeovil centre-forward, in one of his dashes down the centre. From a similar incident he scored the deciding goal. Below, Alec Stock, player-manager, offers dressing-room congratulations to reserve goalkeeper Dick Dyke.
